

Dear Right Angle Member,

March Speakers:

02 – “Amazon River Conservation”

Roger Mustalish, Ph.D., President, Amazon Center for Environmental Education and Research (ACEER); also Prof. at West Chester University.

09 – “Personal identification in the modern age. How do they know who we are?”

Paul Labow, President and CEO, ePortation, Inc. Identity recognition for security purposes. Clients include US Army, US Navy, Commonwealth of PA.

16 - “Medical mission relief work in Haiti”

Karen Albaugh, physical therapist, faculty member at West Chester University and Neumann University. Services provided in Peru and Haiti.

23 (EVENING BUFFET) – “Restoration of Fort Louisburg Nova Scotia”

It is the largest historical reconstruction in North America, an ideal public experience and interpretation of colonial North America.

David Barquist and Doug Schaller. David is The Richard Dietrich, Jr. Curator of American Decorative Arts at the Philadelphia Museum of Art. Doug is the Manager of the Locks Gallery, a major Philadelphia art gallery.

30 - “1812 Theatre Productions”

Performing at Plays and Players Theater, Delancey Place, Philadelphia, 1812 is this country’s only professional theatre company dedicated purely to comedy. They produce established works of comedy and create original works of their own including, most recently, an homage to Sid Caesar – OUR SHOW OF SHOWS. They are well known for their annual political humor show THIS IS THE WEEK THAT IS, an original political satire that changes nightly to address the day’s news. Also, “Like Crazy Like Wow: Nightclub Comedy of the 1950s.” Presenting will be Jen Childs and Scott Greer both of whom created the company 15 years ago. They will talk about the change in America and how it affected comedy.

March promises to be a smashing month!

Cheers,
Neale Bringhurst