Dear Right Angle Member:

RIGHT ANGLE CLUB JULY 2012 SPEAKER SCHEDULE:

July 6 – No Meeting

“By the rockets red glare
The bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night
That our Flag was still there”

July 13 - Prof. David S. Barnes, Ph.D. Dept of History and Social Science
University of Pennsylvania

Dr. Barnes teaches the history of medicine and public health. A published author, he will tell us about the “Philadelphia Lazaretto, Forgotten Monument to a Hidden History,” the sixth oldest quarantine station in the world.

July 20 - John Andrew Gallery, Executive Director Preservation Alliance of Greater Philadelphia

“Why Historical Preservation is Important.” Recent Achievements in Historical Preservation in Philadelphia.

July 27 Marilyn MacGregor Art historian, teacher and writer.

She is the author of an award-winning blog, “ArtSmartTalk.” Her topic is “Collecting Artists: Matisse, Dr. Barnes and his renowned collection” at the new Barnes Foundation on the Parkway.

Truly, there is something for everyone in this eclectic offering of speakers. Come, join us and be enthralled.

Cheers,

Neale Bringhurst
